- The Complainant must pay the Additional UDRP Fees within 5 days of notification by the Provider or, after its appointment, the Panel, when (a) a Response is filed that is in administrative compliance with Art. 5 of the Rules; or (b) the Panel determines that it is appropriate for the Complainant to pay the Additional UDRP Fees, having regard to the complexity of the proceeding. If the Additional UDRP Fees are not paid within the prescribed time period, the Complaint shall be deemed withdrawn.
- The Czech Arbitration Court will grant a substantial discount on UDRP Fees for administrative proceedings which have been terminated early. Specifically, when a Complaint is withdrawn or a proceeding is terminated before the Panel has been appointed, the CAC will withhold a processing fee equal to the CAC's Administrative Fee and return the remainder of the UDRP Fees to the respective Parties.
- The Czech Arbitration Court will return the UDRP Fees applicable for filing a request to review the CAC's administrative decision to terminate an administrative proceeding due to administrative deficiencies, if the review is concluded in favor of the Complainant.

Explanatory Notes:

As already mentioned, all the fees mentioned above are in EUR including VAT on Panelist's fees. The CAC is not VAT registered.

All the fees are payable before respective filings by (i) credit cards/charge cards; and/or (ii) bank transfer to the following account of the Czech Arbitration Court: IBAN CZ87 0400 0000 0035 9413 0024; S.W.I.F.T. code: ZIBA CZPP, variant symbol: [Case Number]; and/or (iii) cheques.
